LONG PITCHED NO HIT GAME IN MATCH LAST WEEK AGAINST V. M. I.

Long, the game little Clemson twirler, who held the Furman club scoreless for 17-innings in the game played here last Tuesday, has won additional laurels and the following account of a no hit, no run game he pitched against the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington last week will be read with great interest by his ardent supporters in this section:

Lexington, Va., April 29--In the best game of ball seen on the local diamond this season, Clemson college defeated V. M. I. by a score of 2 to 0. Long, the visiting pitcher, allowed the cads no hits and the excellent fielding by Clemson allowed only two men to get on bases during the entire nine innings. J. Pitts, who was on the mound for the locals, gave up six hits, two of them being good for three bags. Massie and Jenkins of V. M. I. both made beautiful catches in the outfield. Major of Clemson played the best second base ever seen in Lexington. Clemson scored in the first and third innings, once on a wild throw and again on a three-base hit by McMillan with Harris on base. V. M. I. ... 000 000 000--0 0 3 Clemson ... 101 000 000--3 6 1 J. Pitts and L. Pitts; Long and Harris. Umpire Rattery. Time 1:30.

Whooping Cough. One of the most successful preparations in use for this disease is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. S. W. McClinton; Blandon Springs, Ala., writes, "Our baby had whooping cough as bad as most any baby could have it. I gave him Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it soon got him well." Obtainable everywhere.

BEWLEY WON THE DOUBLES

Anderson Boys Take One Event and Lose the Other in Greenville Matches

Anderson high school, ably represented by Bewley and Martin, were victorious over the Greenville high school in the doubles of a tennis match yesterday and only lost the singles after a hard fight. Bewley represented the local school in the doubles. In the singles Martin lost to Melver of Greenville, after putting up a game struggle.

It was announced last night that the Greenville high school representatives would meet the Anderson aggregation on the local court next Monday, at which time the Anderson boys expect to capture all matches.

Play at Lowryville. Chester, May 1.--A play entitled "A Case of Suspicion" was given by the big er grades of the Lowryville school, and a number of drills by the primary pupils Friday evening, and were attended by a large crowd. The proceeds go to the school fixtures.
